4:50pm	ANNOUNCEMENTS/ GENERAL UPDATES	The Traverse Area District Library (Woodmere location) will be hosting “Community Conversations: Addiction & Recovery – Predator & Prey, 4 Years Later” on Monday, April 25 from 6:30-8pm. The event will start with a viewing of the 2018 “Predator & Prey” documentary, followed by a then-and-now conversation with some of	Nancy Dow

		the students that helped to create the documentary, and end with a panel discussion. Many community organizations will also have resource tables setup at the event. For more information, visit: https://www.tadl.org/2022/03/30/recoveryconversation/ If you have not already taken this American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) survey would you please take a minute and take it? The behavior health and public safety are programs I am currently working on and if you do not have a strong feeling for the other categories, if you could rank behavior health and public safety as 1 & 2 that would be great, In the comments if you could write the following: Diversion Center, Jail, Hybrid pension for recruitment/retention. Visit this link (https://psconsultants.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_2fVAF5smlM4zbU2) to take the survey and share with whomever you can. Thank you! The Interlochen Public Library is hosting Long Road to Recovery, a book discussion series about recovery from addiction featuring a different book each session with a group discussion in the Interlochen Public Library Community Room. The next discussion will take place on Thursday, April 21 from 6-7pm. This month's book is titled, The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian by Sherman Alexie. Books are free to the community but copies are limited so stop by the library soon to register and get your copy. Registration is not required to attend the discussions. Refreshments and childcare will be provided.	Suzy Cline Lauren Reed
