4:10pm	ANNOUNCEMENTS/ GENERAL UPDATES	Munson had their first patient utilize a withdrawal order set on 11/11/20; this provides comfortable, safe, and consistent treatment for anyone coming in with opioid withdrawal. Based on the Clinical Opiate Withdrawal Scale (COWS) score the patient receives a specific dose of buprenorphine. This has been in the making for a couple of years. Lisa Anderson, Susanne Prentice, Suzy Cline, and Nancy Dow are going through CCAR training through NMSAS to become certified recovery coaches. Live Well Kalkaska will be holding their 7th Annual Kalkaska County Serenity Vigil on December 7 at 6:30pm at the Kalkaska Church of Christ.	Julie Botsford & Christina Eickenroth Lisa Anderson Susanne Prentice

		having trainings. FAN raised $3,400 from their bottle and can drive. Kim Johnson and Nancy Dow helped with ATS' event to give away free Narcan kits to local businesses and provided training. This was in collaboration with the Downtown Development Authority and about 6-8 retailers attended. Susan Alexander, a local artist who lost her daughter to an overdose, donated a few thousand Area Posters, which is a large adult coloring book page with designs of Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties. We hope to sell the posters in local storefronts, in the schools, and the library. Raised funds will go towards SUD prevention, education, and treatment. The Grand Traverse Sheriff's Department and the Traverse City Police Department have joined the Michigan State Police Angel program. Officers received training last week.	Nancy Dow Nancy Dow Dave Prichard
4:20pm	PREGNANT AND PARENTING TEENS IN GRAND TRAVERSE COUNTY	Marjie Rich, Director of Generations Ahead, will educate us on the work she does and how this relates to substance use Attached are the presentation slides. To get a teen into the program, contact Alison Woytowich, MSW at 231-590-2262. Warm handoffs are best, so if you can meet on Zoom or a phone call to introduce the teen to Alison that would be preferred. General email address for Generations Ahead is info@generationsahead.org and their website is https://generationsahead.org/.
